Call Issued by the Democratic State Committee

FOR STATE CONVENTION

To Reconvene at Salt Lake City on Tuesday October 22, 1896 at 10 a. m.—Also Issues Also a Ringing Address Setting forth Plainly the Cause.

The state central democratic committee and many prominent democrats from all parts of Utah met at Salt Lake City on Monday evening October 14th to consider the present crisis of church interference with state that is upon us, and after due and calm deliberation issued the following serious and solemn address and call for the reconvening of the delegates that composed the convention that met at Ogden on September 5, 1895:

Since the nomination of the democratic state ticket, through no fault of the democratic party, there has arisen a crisis in the political affairs of this territory. It has been caused by the efforts of designing and unscrupulous republicans, who have used and distorted ill-considered statements of high church officials in order to secure their own designing ends. Efforts are being made to cause the people who have been taught to reverence authority, that the dominant church of Utah desires the defeat of the democratic ticket. This condition of things needs the serious consideration of every thinking man and woman. It presents before the people a question before which all voters are dwarfed. It relates to the rights of persons and the personal and political freedom of every individual. The democratic party, which has never been the party of the least freedom to the citizen, proposes to meet this issue and to light it out that it may be settled for all time. That peace may come to the people of Utah. That the adoption of the constitution that is presented for the consideration of the people may not be defeated.

It has no quarrel with any church; it asserts the right of every society to govern and control its members in its own affairs, so long as the rights of the state or the rights of other individuals are not encroached upon. Its grievance has been caused by those who are ready and willing to drag the cross of Christ in the mud and dust and filth of politics, to advance selfish ends. It matters not whether this was occasioned by innocent motives or innocent action, but the result is the same: an issue has been raised. There should be no interference with the rights of any church or of any individual; but for the good of Utah as well as for the good of democracy the question should be met in a many way, and in a manner that the people will know that the democracy has spoken and will not recede. Therefore, in view of conditions existing, in order that there may be issued a declaration of political independence and for the purpose of declaring the political position of the democratic party, we, the democratic party, do hereby declare that we are not in any way connected with any church or ecclesiastical authority to control the votes of the political sentiment of any citizen, the democratic state committee, duly assembled at Salt Lake City on Monday, the 14th day of October, 1895, by an unanimous vote, hereby directs the reconvening of the delegates that composed the convention that met at Ogden on the 5th day of September, 1895, at Salt Lake City, on Tuesday, the 22nd day of October, 1896, at the hour of 10 a. m. All delegates to the late convention are earnestly requested to attend this reconvening of the convention, and to attend this convention for the good of Utah and all the people, and thus aid in settling once and for all one of the questions that has so long harassed all classes in this territory.

The convention will also be empowered to take such other action that that stated in this call as the exigencies of the occasion may require.

Some Railway Mapmaking.
"This won't do," said the general passenger agent in annoyed tones to the map maker. "I want Chicago moved down here half an inch, so as to come on our direct route to New York. Then take Buffalo and put it a little farther from the lake."

"You've got Detroit and New York on different latitudes, and the impression that that is correct won't help our road."

"And, man, take those two lines that compete with us and make 'em twice as crooked as that. Why, you've got one of 'em almost straight."

"Thank Boston over a little to the west and put New York a little to the west, so as to show passengers that our Buffalo division is the shortest route to Boston."

"When you've done all these things I've said, you may print 10,000 copies—but, say, how long have you been in the railroad business, anyway?"—New York Herald.

How Flies Walk on Window Panes.
The microscope reveals the most contrivance which enables a fly to walk up a window pane or defy the laws of gravity by gliding along back downward, on the ceiling. This magnifier shows the foot to be made up of two pads covered with fine, short hair, each pad having a hook above it. Behind each pad is a bag filled with a sticky liquid which oozes out whenever the fly puts his foot down. The amount which is pressed out of each foot is very small indeed, but taken all together it is amply sufficient to hold the insect in any position he chooses.—St. Louis Republic.

Only in so far as the legal position of the married woman must exercise a moral influence on the life of the unmarried it is necessary to say a word of the legal foundation of marriage in Germany. It is a marriage in the view of the superiority of man, of the subordination of woman. Even the notion that she is bought by her husband survives, in however slight a form, in the ceremony of betrothal. Her husband is her master, her guardian, her natural supporter. Above all he is her educator. He shares his rank, his name, his dignities, his fortune, but without him she cannot attain to her own. "In the domain of all she remains a subject," Schlegel argues, "and she remains at it must be by the free will of man."

In the country like Germany, where, in all matters connected with moral and intellectual life, the links of tradition have never been severed, the present is explained by the past. Disfranchisement is the mildest form of criticism opponents will offer whenever on the platform or from the professional chair the attempt is made to plead in favor of women's political rights. On this point all the female advocates of the emancipation of their sex are unanimous in their lamentations.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORMS

Territorial, Adopted at Ogden (Sept. 5th)

The democratic party of Utah in convention assembled, reporting its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and justice of the people—standing upon the constitution as a foundation and limitation of the power of the government as well as the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen—congratulate the territory—now soon to be a state—on the assured success of the policy adopted by the national organization as laid down in all its platforms.

For the democracy of the entire territory we reaffirm our faith in the permanence of federal union and our devotion to the constitution and the laws, and declare as cardinal doctrines of democracy:

First—Absolute acquiescence in the will of the majority as a vital principle of the democratic party.

Second—That the separation of church and state for the sake alike of civil and religious liberty.

Third—The liberty of the individual untrammelled by compulsory laws.

Fourth—The support by the state of the public schools.

Fifth—The supremacy of the civil over the military power.

Sixth—Exact equality of all persons before the law.

Seventh—The right to a free ballot—the right preservative of all other rights.

Eighth—That our democratic party is the friend of the laboring man in every avocation of life, and will protect his interests alike against the aggressions of monopoly as well as the commences.

We desire the restoration of the money of the constitution is now the paramount issue before the country, and insist that both parties shall plainly state their respective positions upon this question, in order that the voters may intelligently express their preference. We therefore declare ourselves in favor of the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, as such coinage existed prior to 1873, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. Gold and silver coin to be a full and legal tender for all debts public and private.

We deplore the republican party in 1873 and for its repeated acts of hostility toward its remnant, and in carrying out its policy of restoring the gold standard we call attention to the fact that the country was in the throes of a financial panic when the democratic administration assumed control in 1883 and we congratulate the people upon the approaching reign of prosperity as a result of a democratic reform of the tariff; and also to the fact that factories, foundries and mills have resumed work since the repeal of the McKinley law, and to the constantly advancing wages of workmen in almost every industry.

We again express our hearty appreciation of the democratic congress and president in providing an enabling act by virtue of which Utah is about to assume its position as a sovereign state.

We commend the action of the democratic members of the constitutional convention in surrounding the taxing and revenue-raising power of the state by such restrictions and limitations as to preclude any squandering of public property in aid of private enterprises, and in providing for the carrying of the public business within proper limits of economy, despite the almost unanimous opposition of a republican majority. And we favor the adoption of the proposed constitution.

We congratulate the women of Utah upon their admission to equal political rights with men under the provisions of the constitution proposed, and the democratic party for its earnest and able support of that measure by its representatives in the constitutional convention.

We denounce as false the charges that the democratic party of Utah has been guilty of stuffing ballot boxes or other election frauds, and condemn the republican party for its unprovoked and reckless attack upon the majority of the constitutional convention, and deplore the lack of principle shown by its attempt without any evidence and for partisan purposes to besmirch the character of honorable citizens.

Utah County, Adopted at Payson (Sept. 20th)

Hon. J. B. Miller, chairman of the committee on platform and resolutions reported the following platform:

The democratic party of Utah county in convention assembled declare as follows:

We hereby endorse and reaffirm the platform adopted at the convention held in Ogden on September 5, 1895.

We cordially and heartily approve of the action of said convention in nominating Joseph L. Rawlins and Moses Thatcher for United States senators for Utah, and demand that the members of the legislature from Utah county use every honorable means to secure their election.

With heartfelt gratitude we appreciate the munificent donation of public lands granted by the federal government to the new state of Utah, and urge upon the legislature the necessity of passing such laws and adopting such measures as will secure to the state the most valuable public lands within the state to the extent of all grants made to it, and its public institutions.

We demand the passage of such laws as will provide for the sale of state lands to actual settlers only, in small holdings; for the selection of suitable sites for reservoirs; for the preservation from destruction or waste of the timber on the public lands; for the improvement of arid lands; and for the development of all the natural products of the state.

We favor retention by the state of all its lands not susceptible of immediate improvement, and the leasing by the state of its improvable lands, when ever such leasing will tend to their more rapid and efficient improvement and development.

We favor a revision of the laws of Utah on irrigation. First, to secure and irrevocably fix all existing rights to the use of water; and second, to provide for an increased supply of water and to distribute all the available water fairly and justly among all persons entitled to its use.

We demand the passage of such laws as will secure to all the people of the state the benefit of all land grants, and prevent, as far as possible, any monopoly of either land or water rights in Utah.

We insist upon the expenditure of public money by the state for public purposes only, and for such purposes as economically as is possible, consistent with securing efficient service, and as may absolutely be necessary for the accomplishment of such purposes.

There is no doubt, no failure, when you take DeWitt's Colic & Cholera Cure. It is pleasant, acts promptly, no bad after effects. Smoot Drug Company.
